

WRT 105

Section: M322

Course Evaluation

Fall 2019

Home College:

1. What is the most significant thing you have learned about composition and rhetoric or about yourself as a writer in this course?

I enjoy writing about things I care about and how I can take care of myself

2. What have you learned in this course that you feel will help you in future writing situations?

That everyone has a different style of writing and I can have my own

3. How did this course help you understand the relationships between cultures and genres?

That cultures tend to write for the same genres

4. Comment on the role of readings in the course: how did your reading practices change or evolve? How did the readings help you to develop as a writer?

It was interesting reading from different perspectives and points of view. As a writer I can share my own point of view

5. What did you learn about research and analysis with primary and secondary sources? Provide a few specific examples of the primary and secondary research you undertook this semester.

I liked it

6. What was challenging about this course? Please explain.

Sometimes the project prompts were Unclear

7. Would you describe your instructor as

- |   |                                      |                          |
|---|--------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| a. Knowledgeable about teaching writing         | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| b. Available outside of class                   | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| c. Prepared for class                           | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| d. Skilled at facilitating classroom discussion | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| e. Open to student views                        | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| f. Intellectually challenging                   | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |

8. Comment on your instructor's feedback on your writing. Was it timely? Helpful? If so, in what way?

Definitely helpful and recommending

9. Would you recommend any changes to this course? Please explain.

NO

10. Use the space below for any additional comments about the instructor or the course.

Needs to do a better job saying NO

Home College: College of Arts & Science

1. What is the most significant thing you have learned about composition and rhetoric or about yourself as a writer in this course?

I have learned a lot of different genres and how that can affect rhetoric.

2. What have you learned in this course that you feel will help you in future writing situations?

I have learned how to incorporate research in my writing.

3. How did this course help you understand the relationships between cultures and genres?

It helped me understand the importance that a writer's culture can have on a genre of their work.

4. Comment on the role of readings in the course: how did your reading practices change or evolve? How did the readings help you to develop as a writer?

The readings effectively showed the topics of rhetoric & writing in general.

5. What did you learn about research and analysis with primary and secondary sources? Provide a few specific examples of the primary and secondary research you undertook this semester.

I learned how to form a research question and I used primary & secondary research of The Barnes Center.

6. What was challenging about this course? Please explain.

Being able to write the longer papers effectively.

7. Would you describe your instructor as

- |   |                                      |                          |
|---|--------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| a. Knowledgeable about teaching writing         | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| b. Available outside of class                   | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| c. Prepared for class                           | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| d. Skilled at facilitating classroom discussion | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| e. Open to student views                        | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| f. Intellectually challenging                   | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |

8. Comment on your instructor's feedback on your writing. Was it timely? Helpful? If so, in what way?

It was helpful because the class was knowledgeable

9. Would you recommend any changes to this course? Please explain.

No

10. Use the space below for any additional comments about the instructor or the course.

N/A

Home College: Syracuse University

1. What is the most significant thing you have learned about composition and rhetoric or about yourself as a writer in this course?

That there are many ways in which I can express myself and get others to understand me without being too formal; I can use multiple genres.

2. What have you learned in this course that you feel will help you in future writing situations?

Knowing how to switch up my writing style based off my audience.

3. How did this course help you understand the relationships between cultures and genres?

That different cultures have different ways of expressing their thoughts through writing.

4. Comment on the role of readings in the course: how did your reading practices change or evolve? How did the readings help you to develop as a writer?

There are multiple ways of expressing yourself and that all are unique in contributing to rhetoric as a whole.

5. What did you learn about research and analysis with primary and secondary sources? Provide a few specific examples of the primary and secondary research you undertook this semester.

....

6. What was challenging about this course? Please explain.

7. Would you describe your instructor as

- |   |     |    |
|---|-----|----|
| a. Knowledgeable about teaching writing         | yes | no |
| b. Available outside of class                   | yes | no |
| c. Prepared for class                           | yes | no |
| d. Skilled at facilitating classroom discussion | yes | no |
| e. Open to student views                        | yes | no |
| f. Intellectually challenging                   | yes | no |

8. Comment on your instructor's feedback on your writing. Was it timely? Helpful? If so, in what way?

9. Would you recommend any changes to this course? Please explain.

10. Use the space below for any additional comments about the instructor or the course.

WRT 105

M322

Section:

TuTh
5:00-6:20

Course Evaluation

Fall 2019

Home College: Whitman

1. What is the most significant thing you have learned about composition and rhetoric or about yourself as a writer in this course?

I learned that I have the power of persuasion in my writing.

2. What have you learned in this course that you feel will help you in future writing situations?

I learned a lot of different writing styles that I will be able to identify later on.

3. How did this course help you understand the relationships between cultures and genres?

I am able to identify them in context.

4. Comment on the role of readings in the course: how did your reading practices change or evolve? How did the readings help you to develop as a writer?

They evolved a lot. I started reading things that I never would have read before.

5. What did you learn about research and analysis with primary and secondary sources? Provide a few specific examples of the primary and secondary research you undertook this semester.

I read a lot of different authors like Yergen and got to see her experiences first hand.

6. What was challenging about this course? Please explain.

It was challenging interpreting things I have never read before (styles).

7. Would you describe your instructor as

- |   |                                      |                          |
|---|--------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| a. Knowledgeable about teaching writing         | <input checked="" type="radio"/> YES | <input type="radio"/> NO |
| b. Available outside of class                   | <input checked="" type="radio"/> YES | <input type="radio"/> NO |
| c. Prepared for class                           | <input checked="" type="radio"/> YES | <input type="radio"/> NO |
| d. Skilled at facilitating classroom discussion | <input checked="" type="radio"/> YES | <input type="radio"/> NO |
| e. Open to student views                        | <input checked="" type="radio"/> YES | <input type="radio"/> NO |
| f. Intellectually challenging                   | <input checked="" type="radio"/> YES | <input type="radio"/> NO |

8. Comment on your instructor's feedback on your writing. Was it timely? Helpful? If so, in what way?

Extremely timely, and helpful, I learned many new strategies and grammar.

9. Would you recommend any changes to this course? Please explain.

NO

10. Use the space below for any additional comments about the instructor or the course.

WRT 105

Section:

M322

Course Evaluation

Fall 2019

Home College:

A&S

1. What is the most significant thing you have learned about composition and rhetoric or about yourself as a writer in this course?

What Rhetoric is

2. What have you learned in this course that you feel will help you in future writing situations?

How to write more

3. How did this course help you understand the relationships between cultures and genres?

It helped me see the connection

4. Comment on the role of readings in the course: how did your reading practices change or evolve? How did the readings help you to develop as a writer?

They showed me examples of what I had to write

5. What did you learn about research and analysis with primary and secondary sources? Provide a few specific examples of the primary and secondary research you undertook this semester.

I learned about the difference

-I did research by observing spaces.

6. What was challenging about this course? Please explain.

The open-ended nature of the projects was hard at first.

7. Would you describe your instructor as

- |   |                                      |                          |
|---|--------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| a. Knowledgeable about teaching writing         | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| b. Available outside of class                   | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| c. Prepared for class                           | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| d. Skilled at facilitating classroom discussion | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| e. Open to student views                        | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |
| f. Intellectually challenging                   | <input checked="" type="radio"/> yes | <input type="radio"/> no |

8. Comment on your instructor's feedback on your writing. Was it timely? Helpful? If so, in what way?

Yes it was timely, not very specific ~~to me~~
individually

9. Would you recommend any changes to this course? Please explain.

I felt that the 6b HW's were unnecessary

10. Use the space below for any additional comments about the instructor or the course.

Thanks